PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

On the part of Batavia Township’s ongoing effort to recognize members of our business community, Mr. Parsons introduced Embroid Now and its owner, Lance Grissom. It moved from the Eastgate Mall to the new store on 1696 State Route 125, Amelia. They offer complete embroidery services to our community. Mr. Grissom gave an overview of his business. On behalf of the Township, Mr. Sauls presented a plaque to Mr. Grissom.

DEPUTY REPORT

Deputy Chris Allen gave the report for the Sheriff’s office. For August there were 430 calls for service.

REPORTS OF THE ZONING ADMINISTRATOR

Mrs. Kelley presented copies of her report to the Trustees. There were six housing permits in August, up from last year. There is another new tenant in the old Ford Plant.

There were no BZA cases in August. There will be a case on September 15th. There were no hearings in August for the Zoning Commission.

REPORTS OF THE TOWNSHIP ADMINISTRATOR

Mr. Parsons gave his report. The first Township Yard Sale Days is this coming weekend. There are approximately 13-14 people currently registered on the Township website. There are 12-13 registered for the parking lot also.

The FEMA funds have been approved for a 75% grant match for the Lucy Run Cemetery Bridge project which totals $ 47,525.

The Concession/Restroom facility to date has cost $72,000. The stone work should start next week.

Mr. Parsons turned in the Resolution passed by the Batavia Township Trustees opposing the Batavia Village annexation of the Wiedenbein property to the Clermont County Board of Commissioners, along with exhibit material and a cover letter.

OLD BUSINESS

Committee Reports

Mr. Sauls gave the report for CJFED. There was no meeting last week.

Mr. Dowdney gave his report for the Cemetery Board. There were no issues at this time.

Road Paving Project

The project is almost complete. All repair work is finished.

Road Striping

This project is nearly completed also.

Bauer Road Tile

Mr. Embry has ordered the tile. The County will complete this on a weekend. The road will be closed for a short time and this will be announced in advance.

Old 74-Olive Branch Road Intersection

We are still waiting for the right-of-way temporary work easements for installation of the traffic light. This will probably take place in late summer or early fall.

Plaque

The Board is pleased with the new building plaque on the concession facility.

Reflectivity Standards

The Federal Government has relaxed their requirement for the deadline of 2012. When the timeline is implemented, we will be compliant.
